HEADLINE SPONSOR

PORTFOLIO
PAYROLL LTD

To be eligible for the Old Age Pension when it was first introduced in the UK, individuals had to meet the following criteria:

Age

They had to be 70 years or older

Residency

They needed to be a resident in the UK for at least 20 years

Income

It was means-tested, the full amount paid to those with incomes below £21 and reduced on a sliding scale up to £31 and ten shillings

Character

The pension was also subject to a character clause, where individuals had to be of 'good character' and not have a history of imprisonment for certain crimes.
