Dear Mr Pullar

RE: National Payroll Week

I wanted to write in support of the Chartered Institute of Payroll Professionals (CIPP) National Payroll Week.

Having sponsored events in the House of Commons in the past to mark National Payroll Week, I am well aware of the importance of this week.

National Payroll Week is not just a week to promote the work of payroll professionals, but is also a week to recognise the importance of those professionals and the CIPP. Like you I welcome that payroll professionals were regarded as 'key workers' during the recent Coronavirus outbreak. Payroll professionals are vitally important to our economy, and are a profession often not seen but are vital to keeping the UK paid.

I do hope that at next year's National Payroll Week we are able to meet together once more and reflect on the vital work which payroll professionals have undertaken in recent months. For now, I wish you and yours a happy National Payroll Week.

With kind regards,

Julian Knight
