

Acas

Britain's workplace experts

Acas gives employees and employers free, impartial advice on workplace rights, rules and best practice.

We also offer training and help to resolve disputes.

Here to help during your payroll career

Whether you're an employer who wants to make sure they're following employment law and good practice, or an employee who wants to understand your rights at work, we can help. There's no charge for most of what we offer.

Advice and guidance

We provide free and accessible best practice advice and guidance to help businesses follow employment law and get workplace relations right for growth. We also have statutory codes of practice that set the minimum standard of fairness that workplaces should follow.

The Acas helpline, 0300 123 1100, is for anyone who needs employment law or workplace advice, including employers, employees and workers.

Training

We have training, events and tailored support to help you deal with workplace problems and keep up to date with best practice.

Resolving disputes

Acas' voluntary independent impartial conciliation service helps both sides in a potential Employment Tribunal find a mutually acceptable solution. We also work with employers and employee representatives (Trade Unions) to resolve collective disputes and avoid strike action.
