

BE SUPPORTED. BE KNOWLEDGEABLE. BE DEVELOPED.

BECOME A MEMBER OF THE CIPP

Membership of the CIPP means you are supported. The membership packages have been carefully designed to provide you with the knowledge, development, recognition, and support you need if you work within payroll, pensions and reward.

Our growing community of members come from right across the industry, at every career stage. Whatever your background, challenge or professional level, there is a membership grade with a range of benefits, designed to get you where you need to be.

SUPPORT

One of the most valuable benefits to your membership package is access to the Advisory Service. The team are highly experienced professionals who are there to give you advice on your technical payroll issues.

KNOWLEDGE

You'll also receive invitations to our events throughout the year and weekly updates via our News Online email, keeping you regularly informed of current changes in policy and practice, impacting your daily work and your wider career.

DEVELOPMENT

Your membership will also give you access to the continuing professional development tool, online content including webcasts and updates, and substantial discounts on a range of training courses

Take a look at our membership grades overleaf to find the right level for you or your team.
